

6516207544.txt

We support Satellite radio. We pay for all channels and feel the FCC should have no authority over a paid radio channel. The stations that are brought to all subscribers are of more value to us than your regular radio stations (and might add more accurate). With so many other issues the FCC should be concerned about (such as internet gambling) they insist on taking things away that people enjoy and don't get hurt by.
Leave XM radio alone.

Thank you